Bad Check Program Information

As a victim of a bad check you may file this report with the Eighteenth Judicial District Attorney, provided there is sufficient information, and that the check meets all eligibility guidelines. The Eighteenth Judicial District Attorney's Office will seek full restitution for victims whenever possible; however, please keep in mind that the Bad Check Restitution Program can make no recovery guarantees. By submitting the check to the program you surrender control of the check to criminal process and forego the opportunity to pursue civil debt collections.

Check writers are encouraged to make payments in full. Should a partial payment be received, the payment will be allocated between the victim and the Bad Check Program. "Restitution" refers to the face value of all checks listed on this report.

A check will be deemed ineligible and returned to you to pursue a civil remedy, if a filed check is later determined to be:

- A stop payment check where the issuer acted in good faith and with reasonable cause in stopping payment,
- A check issued by someone not competent or of legal age,
- A check dishonored due to bank error or failure to notify the check writer of bank adjustment of a check,
- A check issued to pay an obligation arising from an illegal transaction.

What to do after my crime report is filed with the Program

- Please do not accept direct payments from check writers. Should the check writer contact you to make payment, refer them to the Check Writer Hotline at (800) 574-4617.
- You may contact Merchant Care for case updates at (800) 722-6952 anytime.
- Please allow a minimum of 90 days to pursue restitution.
- If the check writer does not comply with the Program, the case may be reviewed for possible criminal prosecution.
- If we are unable to recover restitution and/or the check is not eligible for prosecution, you may request the check(s) be returned to pursue a civil remedy.
